

Aerie Backcountry Medicine Wilderness First Responder Course

The Wilderness First Responder course is a 72-hour medic course that focuses on the diagnosis and stabilization of injuries that occur more than two hours from hospital or ambulance. All of the information can be transferred to common everyday injuries as well. Those who complete this course will earn a national certification that is a standard requirement for many outdoor-based jobs such as summer camps, schools, wilderness guides, ski patrols, etc.

Location: United World College, Montezuma, NM

Date: August 4-12, 2008 (no classes on the 8th)

Hours: 8am–5:30pm daily

Certification Duration: 3 Years

Course Registration and Fees:

Full Course

Earlybird Registration: postmarked by June 15th $475

Regular Registration: postmarked by July 15th $500

Late Registration: postmarked by July 30th $550

Recertification

$165 (course requirements different for recertification; call for details)

Room & Board options:

Camping available on site (no cost); kitchen available on campus for cooking personal meals.

Hotels and restaurants in Las Vegas, NM (6 miles from campus)

To register, please fill out this form and return it to: Sharon Seto, United World College, PO Box 248, Montezuma, NM 87731; Phone: (505)454-4206 Fax: (505)454-4274 e-mail: sharon.seto@uwc-usa.org

Name: _____

Phone: _____

Organization: _____

E-mail: _____

Address: _____

I am interested in camping on site.

I will find my own off-campus accommodation.

Payment: Check enclosed. (Make payable to United World College.)

Visa

MasterCard

American Express

Discover

Card number (required) _____ Expiration date (required) _____

Name and Address of Cardholder (if different from registrant) _____

Signature of cardholder (required) _____